

Solida Safety Line GmbH is an internationally active specialist in the manufacture of special textile micromesh fabrics that offer optimum properties for disposable headgear, face masks and beard protection in the hygiene sector. At Solida, protective clothing not only has to provide optimum protection for people and products, but also offer the highest possible wearing comfort.

For over 90 years, we have been a reliable partner for national and international companies in the pharmaceutical industry, food production, gastronomy, specialist trade and industry.

With a dedicated team of 50 employees, we focus on innovation, strict quality standards, reliability and close cooperation with our customers and partners.

Solida Safety Line GmbH is looking for a full-time or part-time trainee at the Helmstedt site to start on 01.08.2025

Apprentice (f/m/d)
to become a digitalization management assistant

Your main tasks are

- Introduction and management of information and telecommunications systems
- Analysis of work and business processes with regard to the degree of digitization and optimization
- Advice on the possible uses of information and telecommunications systems
- Planning digitization projects from an economic perspective
- Development, creation and implementation of individual solutions
- Implementation of measures to ensure data protection and IT security
- Creation of system documentation
- User training

Your profile:

- Abitur or secondary school leaving certificate
- Good knowledge of mathematics, computer science, German and English
- Confident in using a PC and enjoy programming
- Reliable, outgoing and willing to learn
- Careful, conscientious and structured way of working

We offer you:

- A modern, well-equipped workplace in a dynamic company with a responsible and varied training program
- A 4-day working week (36-hour week)
- A pleasant working atmosphere with an open and friendly working environment

If you are interested, please send us your complete application documents with cover letter, CV and copies of certificates to the following address:

personal@solida.de

Our data protection information for applicants (f/m/d) can be found on our website www.solida.de under the menu item "Data protection".